Soft drink giant Coca-Cola is to hit the headlines again this week after publishing its latest corporate report which shows that the company plans to invest over £250m in the next 12 months to enhance its basic beverage lines. The company says that this extra cash will give it the opportunity to invest in "new technologies and ingredients that will help shape the future of the business", without naming any of them, as it did last year, at around the same time, when it announced plans to set up a new plant in Belfast, Northern Ireland. Shrove Tuesday is the day before Ash Wednesday in the Protestant calendar, and Mardi Gras the day before Ash Wednesday in the Episcopal and Roman Catholic holidays. Shro
